THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE N.V. RAMANA

Writ Petition No.25026 of 2006

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking a writ of Mandamus declaring the action of respondent No.3 in passing the proceedings dated 11.02.1998, withholding the annual increment of the petitioner for a period of six months with cumulative effect, as illegal and arbitrary.

2. The petitioner is employed as a Conductor in APSRTC. He was issued a charge sheet, dated 01.11.1997, for having opened the passenger door lock of the bus, which resulted an accident to a person causing injuries, and that he was required to submit the explanation, as to why necessary disciplinary action shall not be taken against him, for which he submitted his explanation denying the charges framed against him. The respondent No.3, without conducting any regular departmental enquiry and without affording any opportunity, issued impugned proceedings dated 11.02.1998 imposing punishment of withholding the annual increment for a period of six months with cumulative effect. Against the said punishment, the petitioner preferred an appeal before respondent No.2, but no orders thereon have been passed. Hence, the petitioner filed the present writ petition.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that stoppage of increments of an employee with cumulative effect is a major penalty, and the same cannot be imposed without conducting regular departmental enquiry as contemplated under the APSRTC Employees' (CC&A) Regulations (for short 'the Regulations'). In support of his contention, learned counsel relied on the judgment of the Supreme Court in "Kulwanth Singh Gill v. State of Punjab[1]". 4. On the other hand, learned Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents-Corporation vehemently opposed the said contention and submitted that respondent No.3, after careful consideration of the entire evidence available on record together with the explanation submitted by the petitioner, has passed the impugned order, hence, no reasons to interfere with the same.

5. Heard the learned counsel for both the parties and perused the material available on record.

6. It is an admitted fact that respondent No.3 imposed punishment of deferment of annual increment for a period of six months with cumulative effect, which is a major punishment. Admittedly, no regular departmental enquiry was conducted though the charge sheet was issued to the petitioner before imposing the penalty. The apex Court in "Kulwanth Singh Gill's Case (1 supra) held that stoppage of increments with cumulative effect is a major penalty and it cannot be imposed without conducting the departmental enquiry. Since the punishment of stoppage of annual increment for a period of six months was imposed without conducting regular departmental enquiry violating the judgment of the apex Court, the impugned order cannot be sustained.

7. In the ordinary course of things, the impugned order needs to be set aside leaving it open to respondent No.3 to pass fresh orders, but to avoid further litigation in the matter, I deem it appropriate to dispose of the writ petition with the following direction.

The impugned order dated 11.02.1998, passed by respondent No.3, imposing the punishment of stoppage of annual increment for a period of six months with cumulative effect, is modified to that of stoppage of annual increment without cumulative effect. The petitioner shall not be entitled to any monetary benefits arising out of this order, but shall be entitled to fixation of pay only.

Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
